Fees

SESSION FEES

Session fees are an out of pocket expense – that is, an expense which is not covered by the NDIS – which is related to attendance of Group services.

This fee enables Onemda to provide;

- ▶ Program Consumables (art, craft & stationary supplies, hygiene supplies, PPE, refreshments etc)
- ▶ Specialised resources, equipment and tutors (supplying & maintaining modified IT resources, aids & equipment, and provision of specialty tutors etc)
- ▶ Cover operating costs of maintaining an accessible vehicle fleet not covered by the NDIS

\ Session Fees are charged on a per day of attendance basis and pro rata for any additional hours of attendance.*

Refer to the Schedule of Supports on how these costs are applied, and consult our FAQs document for more information.

ACTIVITY FEES

Some programs and activities have an associated cost, such as entrance fees, meals, short courses and ad-hoc events – these are called Activity Fees.

You will be informed of your Activity Fee via your individualised timetable, and Activity Fees to cover these associated costs.

Please note all prices are subject to annual indexation
